Fischer Panda UK | Power Solutions Welcomes New Vehicle Specialist Stuart Jones to Strengthen Expertise and Company Growth

Fischer Panda UK | Power Solutions, a leading supplier of hybrid vehicle and integrated power solutions, is delighted to announce the appointment of Stuart Jones as their new Vehicle Specialist. Stuart joins the team with a wealth of experience in the automotive and specialist vehicle industries, further bolstering Fischer Panda UK's capabilities in delivering tailored solutions to its growing customer base.

Stuart brings 12 years of expertise in vehicle power systems and applications, having worked extensively in automotive and van conversion business in the UK and Europe. With experience spanning product management and refrigeration OEM applications as well as expertise with integrated vehicle systems such as air conditioning and climate control systems, his appointment reflects Fischer Panda UK's commitment to providing unparalleled support and innovation to clients seeking sustainable and reliable power and system solutions for their vehicles.

"We are thrilled to welcome Stuart to our team," said Chris Fower, Sales & Marketing Director of Fischer Panda UK | Power Solutions. "His deep understanding of vehicle systems and knowledge of the sector will be invaluable as we continue to grow our presence in the market. Stuart's expertise ensures we remain at the forefront of providing cutting-edge hybrid and power system solutions."

In his new role, Stuart will be responsible for supporting clients with technical advice, overseeing system integrations, and driving forward awareness of the advanced vehicle power solutions Fischer Panda UK offers. His focus will be on consolidating the business and exploring new opportunities and building relationships with key stakeholders in the automotive industry.

Stuart commented on his appointment; "I am looking forward to working with the Fischer Panda UK team and growing a business that is empowered through its collaborations with market-leading brands and its strong team in a founder-led business that is able to make quick and optimal decisions that work in our customers' interest.

"We've had a solid start to the year, especially in automotive market, introducing several new customers to Fischer Panda UK | Power Solutions. I firmly believe Fischer Panda UK | Power Solutions provides the best equipment on the market. We differentiate ourselves by providing a service which is second to none. Our ongoing support and aftercare are integral parts of our service commitment."

Stuart aims to get out and about meeting with existing and new customers to communicate the breadth of the company's capabilities in conjunction with their leading partner brands. Fischer Panda UK | Power Solutions offers a comprehensive range of environmentally friendly specialist vehicle application power solutions as well as cooling and climate control systems that support fleet managers with the ever-growing demand to lower carbon emissions.

Fischer Panda UK has established itself as a trusted partner for a wide range of industries, offering solutions that prioritise efficiency, sustainability, and innovation. Stuart's addition to the team underscores the company's dedication to expanding its expertise and delivering exceptional service to its customers.
